Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits. We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Olympia Fields Country Club Historic Landmark Preservation Foundation, Inc as of March 31, 2018 and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Nature of Activities

The Olympia Fields Country Club Historic Landmark Preservation Foundation, Inc. (the Foundation) was organized on April 1, 2016 exclusively for charitable purposes as an Illinois not-for-profit corporation (Section 103.05). The purpose of the Foundation is to preserve and protect old and historic buildings in and around Olympia Fields, Illinois in order to perpetuate the architectural, historic, and general cultural heritage of the Olympia Fields area. The Foundation obtained Section 501(c)(3) status on March 28, 2017.

The Foundation has as its initial focus the preservation, restoration and protection of the iconic Olympia Fields Country Club (OFCC) Clubhouse, a designated National Historic Place.

1 - Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of Accounting

These financial statements have been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles on the accrual basis of accounting.

Revenue recognition

One-time contributions, including revenues from Foundation sponsored events are recognized as received.

Monthly recurring contributions collected on behalf of the Foundation by OFCC from OFCC members are recognized in the month they are billed to members. At March 31, 2018 the Foundation recorded $22,635 as contributions receivable from OFCC.

At March 31, 2018 the Foundation had $15,000 of uncollected outstanding pledges not recorded as revenue.

Cash

For purposes of the statement of cash flows, the Foundation considers all highly liquid investments purchased with a maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents. Cash is deposited in a demand account insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.

Notes to Financial Statements

Date of management's review

Subsequent events have been evaluated through September 11, 2018, which is the date the financial statements were available to be issued.

Contributed Services

No amounts have been reflected in the financial statements for donated services. The Foundation generally pays third parties for services requiring specific expertise. However, many individuals volunteer their time and perform a variety of tasks which do not meet the criteria for recognition as contributed services.

Income taxes

The Foundation is exempt from Federal income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

In accordance with the applicable provisions of the Internal Revenue Code, the Foundation is subject to income tax on unrelated business income. The Foundation had no taxable unrelated business income.

2 - Related Party Transactions

The Foundation has no employees and relies on OFCC for certain administrative assistance and the provision of food and beverage services related to Foundation sponsored events and activities. During fiscal 2018 payments for these services aggregated $5,609 and were at arms length amounts.

Certain Foundation formation costs (legal and promotional) were also funded by OFCC.

Notes to Financial Statements

3 – Significant Concentration of Credit Risk

The Foundations financial instruments that are exposed to concentrations of credit risk consist primarily of cash deposited in demand accounts. Cash is placed with high-quality financial institutions but at times the balances may exceed the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation coverage. All cash was fully insured at March 31, 2018.

4 – Grants

The Foundation considers all grant requests for projects that support its charitable purposes and meet conditions contained in “The Secretary of the Interior’s Standards for the Treatment of Historic Properties” published guidance. Formal grant requests are submitted to the Foundation for consideration and are funded by the Foundation following (i) project approval, (ii) grantee certification upon completion that all grant conditions were met and (iii) final inspection by the Foundation. Third parties, under the direction of the grantee, generally perform project work. During fiscal 2018 the following projects related to the OFCC Clubhouse were funded:

Pavilion room roof	$ 121,250
Pavilion room windows	24,631
Total	$ 145,881

At March 31, 2018 the Foundation had approved a $265,000 grant request related to the restoration of the Normandy Room windows in the OFCC Clubhouse. That project was certified as complete in May of 2018 and will be funded by the Foundation during fiscal 2019.
